Great Aussie Dream

Coming closer to settlement, we had questions as to when we would receive the FHOG, how much it would be, where it would go to etc. They never gave us a clear answer, and just told us that we would receive the funds when they were available.

Being a mortgage broker, I also thought that we would be given a choice of funds that we could choose from, but they obviously just signed us up with the bank which gave them the most commission.

After a horrendous week of missing our settlement date - due to papers being held back, we finally were signing off and our home was ours. I was furious when I noticed that the loan amount borrowed by Great Aussie Dream, did not cover the amount that the house actually cost! So there went our FHOG, down the drain. Didn't see a cent of it. Why the hell didn't they borrow the full amount? we could have borrowed up to 800k!

I am just glad to be done with them and will never recommend them to anyone.
You are better off going to the bank yourself than using a broker.
I will definitely not recommend them to anyone, their service is absolute rubbish.

Comment by David J. of Great Aussie Dream:
Hi Monica

I'm sorry that your experience with us was so upsetting. I am not used to having dissatisfied clients and this is the first that I have heard that you were unhappy, having worked with you on this purchase for 10 months due to the delays in your construction. Fortunately we keep extensive file
